15th Anniversary Spring 2025 Show

Trash the Runway® is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that hosts a design competition challenging middle and high school students to create high-fashion garments entirely out of found, non-recyclable or non-compostable materials. Our goal is to develop resilient leaders of tomorrow who are adept at tackling global challenges by unlocking confidence, creativity, and new ways of critical thinking.

Your support will help us continue to build resilience and confidence in young people so they can reach their full potential in life.
